

Acute Care, Psychiatric and Specialty (PRTFs) Programs and Services Georgia Department of Community Health

Residential mental health facilities for children and youth are specialized kinds of hospitals which provide 24-hour care and have as their primary function the diagnosis and treatment of patients to age twenty-one (21) who have psychiatric disorders to restore them to an optimal level of functioning.

Exemptions:

Any residential mental health facility for children and youth operated by the federal government

Type Regulation:

State: A facility must first obtain a certificate of need in order to be eligible for a permit. A facility choosing to participate in federal programs must be certified.

Legal Authority:

O.C.G.A. § 31-6-40 Certificate of need required

O.C.G.A. § 31-7-1 Regulation of hospitals and related institutions- definitions

O.C.G.A. § 31-7-3 Requirements for permits to operate institutions

O.C.G.A. § 31-7-5 Exemptions from permit requirements

Rules:

State:

- Rules and Regulations for Residential Mental Health Facilities for Children and Youth, Chapter 111-8-68 effective August 3, 2010
- Disaster Preparedness Plans, Chapter 290-5-45, effective June 7, 1984
- General Licensing and Enforcement Requirements, Chapter 111-8-25, effective August 3, 2010

Federal:

- Requirements for States and Long Term Care Facilities: General requirements for psychiatric residential treatment facilities, 42 CFR Sec. 441 Subpart D

Fees:

- Permit: $250-$1500 annually

