

Professional Health Program
Questions and Answers

	Question	Response
1.	What is your best definition of a qualified offeror? - section 1.1 Purpose of procurement	The offerer must have the education, training, certifications and experience to properly assess a licensee for referral to appropriate evaluation and/or detoxification facility, to monitor treatment and practice as it relates to impairment, and to structure, implement, and monitor aftercare. Board certification in addictionology
2.	Does the organization need to already be in place with proper staffing and all your requirements prior to receiving such award? - Section 1.2 Overview of the RFP	No.
3.	Does the contractor need to have the capabilities, documented procedures in order to meet the required responsibilities before or after submitting the proposal and or before or after receipt of the award? - Section 1 Scope of Work	Yes, information about capabilities must be in place in the proposal, along with enough information about planned resources and procedures for evaluation. Further details about procedures can be refined post award.”
4.	Would you encourage a Registered Professional Nurse with strong PURPOSE, DESIRE and FAITH to pursue this well restorative effort of this RFP even with no previously one's own establishment to apply for this RFP award? - Section 1-Scope of work	No, Physician oversight will be essential with training in addictionology strongly preferred.
5.	What special qualifications are you looking for in the offeror that will be granted this award?- Section 1.2 Overview of the RFP	Board certification in addictionology.
6.	Is it possible to have an idea as to a minimum/maximum financial amount being granted for this proposed award? - Section Attachment G -Fee schedule-Financial Quotation	This is not a grant award, please refer to the Section Attachment G.