Nancy Goldstein Appointed Director of the State Health Benefit Plan

ATLANTA – Dr. Rhonda Medows, Commissioner of the Georgia Department of Community Health (DCH), announced the appointment of Nancy Goldstein as Director of the State Health Benefit Plan, which provides health insurance coverage to state employees, school system employees, retirees and their dependents.

Prior to joining DCH, Goldstein was the Director of National Accounts for Great-West HealthCare in Denver, Colo. From 1998 – 2002 Goldstein served as AT&T Broadband's Director of Health & Welfare Benefits covering over 40,000 employees nationwide. In 2004, she managed the employee benefits trust for the Farm Credit Council Services, which is comprised of agricultural lending institutions covering 10,000 employees nationwide. She also has over 10 years of experience with (former) Prudential Healthcare in Atlanta.

"Nancy brings an extensive amount of experience and expertise to DCH's team," said Dr. Rhonda Medows. "I am extremely pleased to have her lead our state health benefits program and I welcome her to our organization."

Goldstein holds a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration/finance from the University of Florida. She and her husband currently reside in Decatur, Ga.
