

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 13, 2010

CONTACT:

Ravae Graham

404-656-7989

DCH Partners with Radio Personality to Host Urgent Town Hall Meeting

Panel members to discuss fighting HIV among gay and bisexual men in Georgia

ATLANTA – With HIV infection rates among gay men more than 44 times higher than heterosexual men, the Georgia Department of Community Health's (DCH), HIV Unit is hosting a town hall meeting and urging community members to take the first step toward Taking Control of HIV in the gay and bisexual community.

WHO: DCH HIV Unit
Melissa Carter, Emcee (Co-Host of the Bert Show on All the Hits Q-100 Radio)

WHAT: Urgent Town Hall Meeting on Fighting HIV in the Gay and Bisexual Community

WHEN: Friday, September 24, 2010
6:30 p.m.

WHERE: Loudermilk Center
40 Courtland Street Southeast
Atlanta, GA 30303

###