

Comprehensive Health Coverage Commission

Caylee Noggle is the President and CEO of the Georgia Hospital Association (GHA). Prior to joining GHA, she served for nearly 20 years for the State of Georgia in various leadership capacities, most recently as the Commissioner of the Georgia Department of Community Health (DCH), the state's lead Medicaid and health planning agency. Prior to this role, she was the Chief Management Officer and Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations in the Office of Governor Brian P. Kemp. Her tenure in state government spanned several state agencies, offices, and policy areas, including education, economic development, natural resources, transportation, criminal justice, and healthcare. She played a central role in the state's COVID-19 operational response, coordinating staffing augmentation for healthcare facilities statewide, facilitating the Alternate Care Facility at the Georgia World Congress Center, and leading cross-agency efforts to plan and deploy vaccination and testing sites across the state. During her time at DCH, she led efforts to implement new Directed Payment Programs that secured over $1 billion in new funding for hospitals around the state. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the Georgia Lottery Corporation, an Honorary State Trooper, and a 2022 graduate of Leadership Georgia. She is a past recipient of GASFAA's Outstanding Service to Students Award and NASPA's Graduate and Professional Student Award. She holds a bachelor's degree from Millikin University and a master's degree in college student affairs from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. She and her family live in Atlanta and are members of Oak Grove United Methodist Church.

<https://gov.georgia.gov/press-releases/2024-06-17/gov-kemp-announces-30-appointments-state-boards-authorities-and>