Speaker Jon Burns Announces Appointments to Comprehensive Health Coverage Commission

ATLANTA – Today, Speaker of the House Jon Burns (R-Newington) announced the House appointments to the Comprehensive Health Coverage Commission. This commission was created by legislation adopted during the 2024 session of the Georgia General Assembly.

Comprehensive Health Coverage Commission

- Ms. Pam Clayton, Vice President, Quality Advancement and Regulatory Affairs, GHCA
- Dr. Sid Moore, Ophthalmologist
- Dr. John Odum, General Surgery Specialist
- Dr. Delvecchio Finley, President and CEO, Atrium Health Navicent

Created by House Bill 1339, the Comprehensive Health Coverage Commission will examine access and quality of healthcare for Georgia's low-income and uninsured populations and make recommendations regarding opportunities for improving access to healthcare across the state.
