Rule 111-8-62-.03 Definitions

In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires, the words, phrases and symbols shall mean the following:

- (ee) "Proxy caregiver" means an unlicensed person or a licensed health care facility that who has been selected by a disabled individual or a person legally authorized to act on behalf of such individual to serve as such individual's proxy caregiver and meets the requirements contained in the Rules and Regulations for Proxy Caregivers Used in Licensed Healthcare Facilities, Chapter 111-8-100.

Rule 111-8-62-.08 Administration

- (1) For homes first licensed after the effective date of these rules, the home must have an administrator, who is at least 21 years of age and, has either
 - (a) an Associate's Degree or,
 - (b) a G.E.D. or a high school diploma and 2 years experience working in a licensed personal care home or other healthcare-related setting.
- (2) The administrator or on-site manager of each personal care home must do the following:
 - (a) Ensure that the policies and procedures are effective and enforced to support the health and safety of the residents.
 - (b) Designate qualified staff as responsible staff to act on his or her behalf and to carry out his or her duties in the administrator or on-site manager's absence. No resident shall be designated as staff.
 - (c) Investigate serious incidents involving residents which result in injuries or death in order to identify and implement opportunities for improvement in care.
 - (d) Monitor and document staff performance to ensure that care and services are being delivered safely and in accordance with these rules.
- (3) Personnel must be assigned duties consistent with their positions, training, experience, and the requirements of Rule 111-8-62-.09.
- (4) The ~~facility administrator~~ must comply with the requirements of Chapter 111-8-16, Rules and Regulations for Disaster Preparedness Plans, ~~develop and utilize a comprehensive disaster preparedness plan for the home for staff and residents to follow in case of fire, explosion, or other emergency, including interruption of electrical power supply, gas-heating supply and water supply. The plan must be completed in a format acceptable to the Department and address obtaining emergency transportation, sheltering in place, loss of power and water, evacuating and transporting the residents away from the home, and identifying alternative living arrangements.~~
 - (a) ~~The plan must describe clearly how the emergency procedures will be carried out for potential emergency situations or disasters which might likely occur, such as~~

~~forced evacuation, utility outage or sheltering in place as a result of a hurricane or tornado.~~

~~(b) The emergency procedures must answer the questions of "who, what, when, where, and how" the home will be ready to act effectively and efficiently in an emergency situation.~~

- (5) Each home must have a telephone which is maintained in working order at all times and is accessible to the residents.
- (6) The home must provide timely notification of the relocation address to the residents, their family contacts and representatives, if any, and the Department whenever the home must relocate the residents as a result of an emergency situation which disrupts the provision of room and board for the residents at the licensed location.

Rule 111-8-62-.16 Admission Agreement

- (1) A written admission agreement must be entered into between the governing body and the resident. Such agreement must contain the following:
 - (a) A current statement of all fees and daily, weekly or monthly charges; any other services which are available on an additional fee basis, for which the resident must sign; a request acknowledging the additional cost; and the services provided in the home for that charge.
 - (b) A statement that residents and their representatives or legal surrogates must be informed, in writing, at least 360 days prior to any increase in established changes in charges related to the provision of personal or services and at least 60 days prior to any increase in charges for room and board.
 - (c) The resident's authorization and consent to release medical information to the home as needed.
 - (d) Provisions for the administrator or on-site manager's continuous assessment of the resident's needs, referral for appropriate services as may be required if the resident's condition changes and referral for transfer or discharge if required due to a change in the resident's condition.
 - (e) Provision for transportation of residents for shopping, recreation, rehabilitation and medical services, which must be available either as a basic service or on a reimbursement basis. Provision must also be made for access to emergency transportation at all times.
 - (f) A statement of the home's refund policy including but not limited to when a resident decides not to move into the home, dies, is transferred or discharged.
 - (g) A statement that a resident may not perform services for the home.

- (h) A copy of the house rules, which must be in writing and also posted in the home. House rules must be consistent with residents' rights. House rules must include, but not be limited to, policies regarding the use of tobacco and alcohol, the times and frequency of use of the telephone, visitors, hours and volume for viewing and listening to television, radio and other audiovisual equipment, whether residents' personal pets or household pets are permitted and the use of personal property.
- (i) For residents first admitted after the effective date of these rules, a statement disclosing whether the home permits the resident to hire independent proxy caregivers, sitters, or requires the purchase of such services from the home or approved providers.
- (j) For residents first admitted after the effective date of these rules, the admission agreement must disclose how and by what level of staff medications are handled in the home. The agreement must also specify who is responsible for initial acquisition, refilling of prescribed medications and whether unit or multi-dose packaging of medications is required.
- (k) An explanation of how and when residents must be discharged or transferred from the home.
 - (1) For residents first admitted after the effective date of these rules, an explanation of how social media, photos of residents and other media involving residents are handled.
 - (2) Each resident, and representative, where applicable, prior to the execution of the admissions agreement, must have an opportunity to read the agreement. In the event that a resident is unable to read the agreement, the administrator or on-site manager must take special steps to assure communication of its contents to the resident.
 - (3) The resident and representative or legal surrogate, if any, must each be given a signed copy of the agreement and a copy signed by both parties (resident and administrator or on-site manager) must be retained in the resident's file and maintained by the administrator or on-site manager of the home.
