

Definition:

Traumatic Brain Injury Facilities (TBIF) are residential treatment and rehabilitative care for people with traumatic brain injury.

Exemptions:

Any TBIF operated by the federal government.

Type Regulation:

A facility must obtain a permit.

Legal Authority:

O.C.G.A. § 31-7-1, Title 31- Health; Chapter 7- Regulation and Construction of Hospitals and other Health Care Facilities; Article 1- Regulation of Hospitals and Related Institutions- Definitions

O.C.G.A. § 31-7-3, Title 31- Health; Chapter 7- Regulation and Construction of Hospitals and other Health Care Facilities; Article 1- Regulation of Hospitals and Related Institutions- Requirements for permits to operate institutions; (c)... Disaster Preparedness Plan.

O.C.G.A. § 31-7-5, Title 31- Health; Chapter 7- Regulation and Construction of Hospitals and other Health Care Facilities; Article 1- Regulation of Hospitals and Related Institutions- Exemptions from permit requirements; application of this chapter to federally operated institutions.

Rules:

Rules and Regulations for Traumatic Brain Injury Facilities, Chapter 290-5-53, effective March 14, 1990.

Disaster Preparedness Plans, Chapter 290-5-45, effective June 7, 1984.

General Licensing and Enforcement Requirements, Chapter 111-8-25, effective August 3, 2010

Fees:

- Permit: $250 Annually