

Pathways Stakeholder Toolkit

What is Georgia Pathways to Coverage™?

Georgia's Department of Community Health (DCH) is launching Georgia Pathways to Coverage™, a new Medicaid eligibility category to increase access to affordable, quality healthcare coverage for people who would not otherwise be eligible for traditional Medicaid.

To be eligible for Pathways, an applicant should:

- Be a Georgia resident
- Be a U.S. citizen or legally residing non-citizen
- Be between 19 and 64 years of age
- Have a household income of up to 100% of the Federal Poverty Level
- Prove that you are doing at least 80 hours of qualifying activities per month
- Not qualify for any other type of Medicaid
- Not be incarcerated

How Does Pathways Benefit Your Organization?

As a trusted provider of public services across Georgia, your organization is in a unique position to help connect individuals who may be eligible to the Pathways program. We hope that by promoting this program together, we can collectively further the state's goal to increase access to affordable health care for Georgians and help them on their journey to financial independence. In turn, we hope to champion well-being and create overall healthier communities in Georgia.

What is the Pathways Stakeholder Toolkit?

The Pathways Stakeholder Toolkit is designed to equip your organization with tools to spread awareness about Pathways in your communities. Tools include informational one-pagers, infographics, prepared Pathways language for your own communication channels, and Pathways FAQs that are ready to share.

How Can You Use the Pathways Stakeholder Toolkit?

Please use these resources to help reach the people in your community – families, patients, medical providers, local government agencies, community partners and more. We encourage you to share these resources with your network via email, as fliers at events, by posting Pathways infographics in your physical locations, and by using the prepared Pathways language on your website, newsletter, and social media posts. These resources are designed for you but can also be adapted based on your organization's unique needs.

What's Included?

d. Drafted Media Response

Recommended Action: Be prepared to respond to media inquiries about Pathways relative to your organization only. Please do not provide personal views or commentary about program; instead, refer the reporter to the Georgia Department of Community Health Communications team (see contact below). Your organization may leverage the suggested responses below and can reach out to your assigned POC with any questions. Having a drafted media response will help ensure that communications about Pathways are consistent and correct.

General Statement:

Georgia Pathways to Coverage™, or Pathways, is an innovative program that establishes a new category of Medicaid eligibility for Georgians who otherwise would not qualify. This program seeks to increase access to affordable healthcare coverage, lower the uninsured rate across Georgia, support members on their journeys to financial independence, and promote members' transitions from the Medicaid program into private coverage. The Pathways program will help create healthy futures for the communities <<Organization Name>> serves across Georgia.

Responses to Anticipated Questions:

How will this program impact your organization?

<<Organization Name>> supports <<number>> of people each year in promoting well-being, as well as financial independence and resiliency for a variety of individuals across Georgia, including those who may be eligible for Pathways. Pathways seeks to increase access to affordable healthcare coverage, lower the uninsured rate across Georgia, support members on their journeys to financial independence, and promote members' transitions from the Medicaid program into private coverage. Pathways will serve as an important resource to our communities and will help us to build a healthier Georgia.

What are you doing to inform the public about this program?

<<Organization Name>> is promoting Pathways to families, patients, medical providers, local government agencies, and community partners on its website, via social media, with newsletter outreach, and in its day-to-day operations. The effort will be focused on educating potential members about the program, how to apply, and how to stay in control of their healthcare coverage.

Please direct media inquiries to Fiona Roberts, fiona.roberts@dch.ga.gov at the Department of Community Health (DCH) for all general Pathways questions.
