

GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP FOR TELEHEALTH

Our Organization

GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP FOR TELEHEALTH

Growth and Maturity

By the Numbers:

- 500+ end points within the Global network
- 150+ specialists/providers, representing 32 unique clinical services
- 8 encounters in January 2006 ; 350,000+ to date (July 2016)
- 106 out of 159 counties in Georgia
- 10 States: GA, AL, FL, SC, TN, LA, VT, IL, CA, VA
- 4 Countries: Honduras, Guatemala, Macedonia, Afghanistan
- 1400+ National and International Students, National School of Applied Telehealth
- 1 of 14 Federal Telehealth Resource Centers

Diverse Applications

- Large and small hospitals
- Private physician offices
- Skilled Nursing Facilities (SNFs)
- School Based Health Centers
- Mental Health Centers
- Correctional Institutes
- Colleges/Universities
- Ambulances
- Missions (Domestic and International)

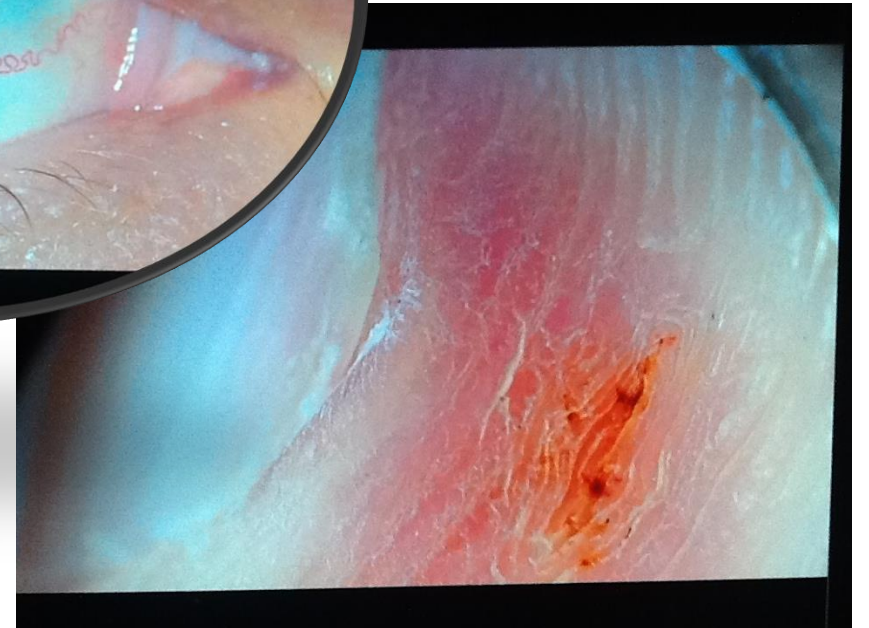

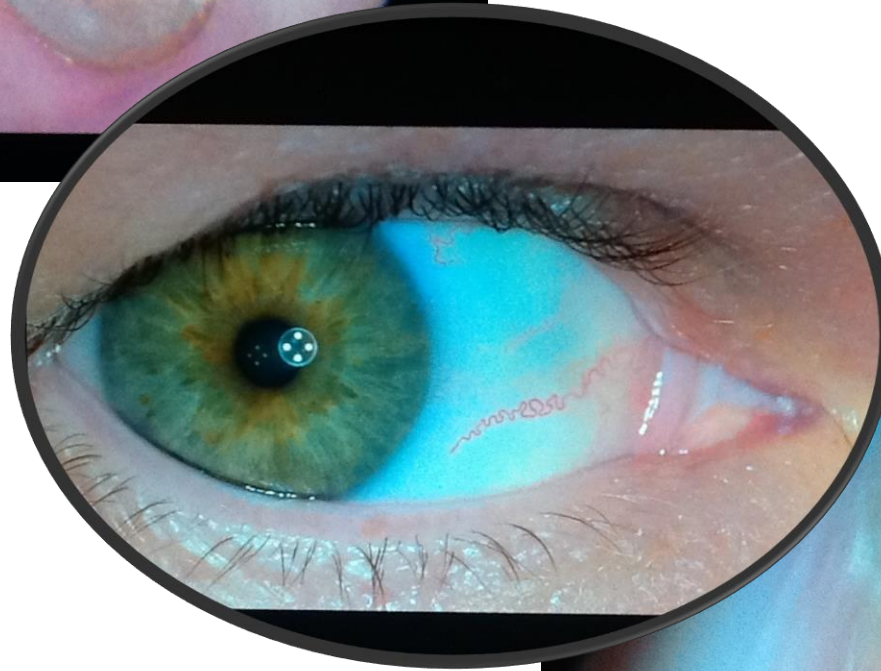

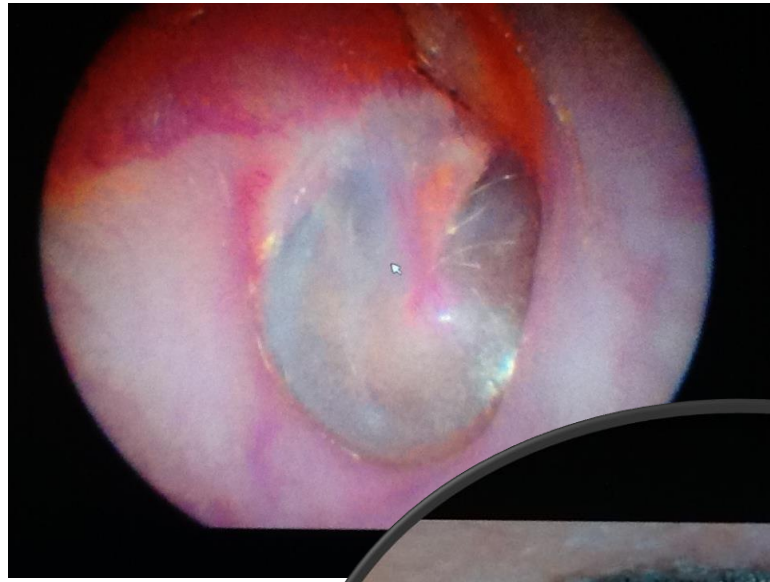

Why Telehealth?

- Increased Access to Quality Care
- Enhanced support to Patients and Families
- Increased Access to Information
- Increased Access to Training
- Cost Savings

LIVE
Telemedicine
Demonstration

CMO Partnerships

Collaborative Projects

- South Central Primary Care – Ocilla, GA
 - Patient presentation site located in an FQHC
 - FQHC providers connect to local School Based Health Centers to see students
- Mountain Lakes – Clayton, GA
 - Patient Presentation location (“go live” in November 2016)
- Albany Area Primary Care – Edison, GA
 - Patient Presentation site located in FQHC
- Several Pending Projects

Collaborative Projects

- Harbin Clinic– Atlanta, GA
 - Patient presentation site located in an FQHC
 - FQHC providers connect to local School Based Health Centers to see students
- Mercy Housing – Atlanta, GA
 - Housing Authority
- Changing Directions – Atlanta, GA
 - SBHC project
- Several Pending Projects

Collaborative Projects

- North GA Health– Catoosa County
 - Patient presentation site located in an FQHC
 - FQHC providers connect to local School Based Health Centers to see students
- Stewart County EMS Project– Richland, GA
 - EMS as patient presentation site
 - Partnering with Phoebe Sumter hospital for physician coverage
- Appling County School District – Baxley, GA
 - School Based Health Program
 - Local Providers
- Several Other providers

GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP FOR TELEHEALTH

To Learn More:

866-754-4325

www.gatelehealth.org