

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Department of Community Health

This Agreement is made this ___ day of _____, 2014, between _____ (“Recipient”) and the Georgia Department of Community Health (“Discloser.”)

WHEREAS, Discloser possesses and will possess certain ideas and information related to an Invitation for Proposal (“IFP”) that are not made available to the general public and are confidential and proprietary to Discloser (“Confidential Information”);

WHEREAS, Discloser possesses certain data that are protected by law from improper use and disclosure, and which Discloser is disclosing to Recipient so that Recipient may prepare a Response to the IFP (“Confidential Data”);

WHEREAS, Confidential Data includes enrollment and claims data described in the Contract Shell included with the IFP, and any additional enrollment and claims data that Discloser determines may be necessary to disclose in order for Recipient to prepare a Response to the IFP. This Confidential Data includes Protected Health Information, as defined by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”);

WHEREAS, Confidential Data will be made available to Offerors through a secure website, upon Discloser’s, or Discloser’s designee’s, receipt of signed Non-Disclosure agreement by Recipient; and

WHEREAS, Recipient is willing to receive the Confidential Information and Confidential Data pursuant to the terms of this Agreement for the purpose of preparing its Response to the IFP;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual undertakings of the Discloser and the Recipient under this Agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. Disclosure. Discloser agrees to disclose, and Receiver agrees to receive the Confidential Information and Confidential Data.
2. Confidentiality.
 - (1) Limited Use. Recipient agrees not to use the Confidential Information and Confidential Data in any way except for the purpose of developing its Response to the IFP.
 - (2) Limited Disclosure to Recipient’s employees and subcontractors. Recipient agrees to use its best efforts to prevent disclosure of the Confidential Information and Confidential Data to any person other than Recipient’s employees who need the Confidential Information and Confidential Data for the purpose of preparing the Response to the IFP.
 - (3) Limited Disclosure to authorized employees and designees of Discloser. Recipient agrees that it will only disclose Confidential Information (including its Response to the IFP) to employees of Discloser, or Discloser’s designee, authorized in writing to receive such Confidential Information.
3. Security.

- (1) Encryption. Recipient agrees to encrypt all Confidential Data during transmission and while at rest.
 - (2) Access Restriction. Recipient agrees to use technical and logical safeguards to ensure that only those employees assisting with the preparation of its Response to the IFP have access to the Confidential Information and Confidential Data.
 - (3) Safeguards. Recipient agrees to implement and use administrative, physical and technical safeguards that reasonably and appropriately protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the Confidential Data.
4. Limits on Confidential Information.
- (1) Confidential Information shall not be deemed proprietary and confidential and the Recipient shall have no obligation with respect to such information: (a) where the Recipient can demonstrate, through written records, that the information was previously known; (b) which has become known to the general public through no acts or omissions of Recipient; or (c) which was lawfully received by Recipient without breach of this Agreement from a third party without restriction as to the use and disclosure of the information.
 - (2) Recipient shall have no obligation to maintain the confidentiality of its own Response to the IFP, once Discloser has publicly announced its intent to select a contractor(s).
5. Ownership of Confidential Information and Confidential Data. Recipient agrees that all Confidential Information and Confidential Data prepared by Discloser shall remain the property of Discloser, and that Discloser may use such Confidential Information for any purpose without obligation to Recipient. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as granting or implying any transfer of rights to Recipient in the Confidential Information or Confidential Data, or any other intellectual property protecting or relating to the Confidential Information or Confidential Data. Recipient agrees that it shall not acquire any interest in, or design, create, manufacture, sell, or otherwise deal with any item or product, containing, based upon or derived from the Confidential Information or Confidential Data, except as expressly agreed to in writing by Discloser. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Recipient may use and disclose its own Response to the IFP after Discloser's public announcement of the selection of a contractor(s).
6. Duty to Report and Cooperate. Recipient shall promptly advise Discloser in writing if it learns of any unauthorized use, misappropriation, or disclosure of the Confidential Information or Confidential Data by any of Recipient's personnel or former personnel. Recipient shall, at its own expense, cooperate with Discloser in mitigating harm arising from such use and seeking injunctive or other equitable relief against any such person(s).
7. Disclosure to Subcontractors. Recipient shall ensure that its agents or subcontractors to whom it provides Confidential Information or Confidential Data for the purpose of preparing its Response to the IFP comply with at least the same obligations that apply to Recipient under this Agreement.
8. Recipient shall either destroy or return the Confidential Data to the Discloser, or Discloser's designee's, within thirty (30) calendar days of the following events, whichever occurs first:
- (1) The Recipient's decision not to submit a Response to the IFP;
 - (2) The Discloser's cancellation of the IFP;
 - (3) The Discloser's selection of the contractor(s);
 - (4) The Discloser's written request for the return or destruction of the Confidential Data.

If the Recipient elects to destroy the Confidential Data, the Recipient shall send written certification to the Discloser, or Discloser's designee, that the Confidential Data have been destroyed no later than five (5) business days after the expiration of the thirty (30) calendar day period referenced in this section. Recipient agrees not to retain any copies of the Confidential Data after return or destruction.

9. This Non-Disclosure Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with applicable state and federal law, including the Georgia Open Records Act and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act.

On behalf of Recipient _____ (organization's name), I am authorized to execute this Non-Disclosure Agreement as of the date above written.
